

2019 La Fortuna Brunello di Montalcino Riserva

The La Fortuna 2019 Brunello di Montalcino Riserva, with just 6,000 bottles made, is quite intense on all fronts. The bouquet opens to a flurry of baked fruit aromas with plum cake and cherry tart, complete with toasted pie crust. You also get savory spice, walnut liqueur and distant Port-like nuances, all followed by a potent 15% alcohol content. The 2019 vintage generally veers toward heavier concentration, and that trend is apparent here.
