

2020 La Fortuna Brunello di Montalcino

The La Fortuna 2020 Brunello di Montalcino is a powerful wine both in terms of its aromas and its mouthfeel (which is fueled by a 15% alcohol content). To the nose, the wine offers dark aromas with baked plum, grilled herb and an earthy quality that recalls underbrush or sweet potting soil. Oak is used with a bigger imprint in this wine, thus resulting in those prominent savory notes. It shows medium-dark concentration and sweet Sangiovese tannins. That extra heft would go a long way with roasted meat. This is an 18,600-bottle release.
